24th September, 2019: The students of Sudunglakha and Dalapchand Secondary School visited Government College Rhenock campus on 24th Sept 2019 for their field visit. A total number of 27 students of 10th standard (IT BACKGROUND), 10 from Sudunglakha and 17 from Dalapchand and 4 faculties, two from each school.

The students were taken for a tour of the college library where they got a glimpse of the campus e-library as well. They were then given a lecture in the seminar hall by the Dean of Students Affairs, Mr. Tulashi Sharma who enlightened them about the various courses offered by the college. Mr. Tulashi also gave the students career counselling and answered the various queries of the students regarding the choices to make for successful career.

Following the lecture the students were taken to the Computer Science Lab. wherein they received hands on training to some of the software guided by Miss Pranamya Rai and Miss Rachana Sharma of English Department.
